

Chambliss Real Estate Team Assists Covenant Logistics in $44 Million Sale of California Terminal

The Chambliss real estate team recently assisted Covenant Logistics, a Chattanooga-based transportation and freight company, in the $44 million sale of a transportation facility in California. Chambliss assisted with all phases of the sales transaction, including participating in a private auction to determine the best offers, followed by negotiations that resulted in a concentrated due diligence and closing timeline.

The Chambliss real estate team is committed to working together to serve our clients on a wide variety of developments, and efficiently and effectively guide them through the complexities of real estate transactions to achieve successful and desired results. Chambliss takes a proactive approach and focuses on working collaboratively with all parties and professionals to achieve client objectives. If you are in need of our legal services, contact a member of our real estate team.